10.10 Student feedback mechanisms on Institutional Governance/faculty performance

Every class of CIMAT has one academic cell. It consists of five students of the class, class tutor, HOD and the principal. Its aim is to encourage feedback from the students to the faculty regarding their difficulties if any, in their academic activities and also suggestions for improvement in the academic infrastructure. Normally the academic cell meets once in a month

10.11 Grievance redressal mechanisms for faculty, staff and students

For a group of 15-20 students, a faculty is identified as their mentor. Students are advised and assisted in solving any of their problems both academic and non-academic. Mentor follows up the progress of the students. The mentor meets his wards regularly and arranges any help needed with the advice of the principal.

Head of the Department and Principal convene the meeting of the students to interact with them to get the feedback on the physical and other facilities available. Based on the feedback of the students, the problems, if any will be addressed immediately to improve the quality of the facilities available. As grievance redressal mechanism for the students and parents meetings will be conducted regularly and the feedback will be obtained. If there is any grievance it will be addressed immediately.
